Dear Pete Braccio;

This is in response to your letter of November 23rd, 2010 as the CBSA Convention Services Program has officially recognized your event.

ACM SIGGRAPH 2011 Conference and Exhibition

August 7th – 11th, 2011

Vancouver Convention & Exhibition Centre
Vancouver, BC

According to your letter, approximately 20,000 people will be entering Canada to attend this event.

Event delegates/attendees are exempt from Canadian work permit documentation requirements. You may provide a copy of this letter to your delegates for presentation to the Canada Border Services Agency upon arrival in Canada. This will satisfy documentation requirements for business visitors.

The CBSA requires everyone seeking admission into Canada to properly declare themselves to the CBSA by providing accurate identification. CBSA will accept a valid passport as proof of citizenship.

Attendees from visa requiring countries will need to contact the responsible Canadian consulate or visa office overseas. More information may be found here: <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/visit/visas.asp>.

Please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned if you have any questions or require further assistance at (604) 666-1294 or facsimile (604) 666-4470.

Regards,

Canada Border
